Garden Club Plans for Mid-May Show

Members of Torrance Terrace Garden Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William Hickcox, 2417 Torrance boulevard. Mrs. Frank J. Farrell, club president, conducted the business session, and the program chairman, Mrs. Marion Hartley, demonstrated methods and materials to use in making dish gardens. Mrs. John B. Hoffman explained the projects to be accomplished in the garden in February for best results this spring.

Discussion was held on the group's participation in the Art, Flower and Hobby Show, scheduled for mid-May. Several members plan to attend the forthcoming meetings for this affair.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hickcox. Next meeting will be held Thursday, February 23, at the home of Mrs. Marvin D. Hiebert of Torrance boulevard.

BRIDGE CLASS TO OPEN AT BEACH CLUB

Residents of Torrance and the Lomita-Walteria area who are interested in bridge are cordially invited to attend the first in a series of six special Wednesday afternoon lecture-duplicate classes in bridge to be inaugurated at 1 p.m. Wednesday, February 22. The classes, at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club, are under the direction of Emma Holt Given and sponsored by the South Bay Bridge Club.

ATTEND AREA YW MEETING

Mrs. Fay Allen, American secretary at the Germany YWCA, was guest speaker Friday at an area World Fellowship meeting sponsored by the Los Angeles YWCA World Fellowship committee at the Hollywood Studio Club.

Attending from Torrance were Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, program director, and Mrs. W. F. Bartholomew.

Las Vecinas Club Plans Luncheon

The Garden Club section of Las Vecinas Womens Club is making plans for a luncheon meeting to be held March 7, at 1:00 p.m., at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. Special flower arrangements, by members of Las Vecinas, will be on display, and prizes will be given for the best arrangements.

Club members are urged to make up parties of members and guests for the occasion. Please telephone reservations to any of the following: Mrs. Keith Niles, Fr. 5-3997; Mrs. Sydney Ruffner, Fr. 5-3691; Mrs. Albin Peterson, Fr. 2-5964; or Mrs. Warren Boggs, Fr. 5-1513.

Further details of this meeting will be announced next week.

Mrs. Evelyn Coigdarripe Wins Halldale PTA Award

Mrs. Evelyn Coigdarripe, member of Halldale faculty who recently retired after 30 years of teaching, is holder of this year's life membership award from Halldale Avenue P.T.A. The award was made by Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president, at the annual Founders' Day meeting at the school. Preceding the presentation Mrs. Bernardin enlightened the audience with a splendid talk on the purpose of the award.

Other honored guests, Mrs. H. T. Seaman, past president of the Halldale P.T.A. and Mrs. Don Wolf, president of the Lomita-San Pedro Council, were welcomed by Mrs. Bernardin and presented with handkerchief corsages.

Two skits highlighted the afternoon program. The first, entitled "Founders Day Cornerstones," featured Mesdames C. C. DeVore, W. O. Hoy, W. C. Sidwell, E. M. Bernardin, John Wright, and W. A. Galbreath. The second skit entitled "Snooty Mothers" was presented by Mesdames R. M. Robertson and J. H. Fryback. Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams, the school orchestra played "Little Waltz," "Skating" and "Dreaming."

Following the program, Mesdames E. O. Karr, C. C. DeVore, J. D.

TEENAGE BEHAVIOR IS TOPIC

The Senior Girl Scout Council of the Harbor Section was held recently at the Scout house of Troop 610. Guest of the evening was Mrs. Lindemuth, personality instructor, who gave an interesting talk on the social behavior of teenagers. The main point of Mrs. Lindemuth's talk, which was followed by an open forum, concerned the social problems of Senior Girl Scouts.

Troop 610 recently held its traditional candlelight ceremony for the investiture of Dorothy Algarme, Ann Freit, Joan Harlen and Antoinette Streliek. Scout laws, motto and slogan were reviewed.

Plans for the next meeting and ice skating party were completed.

Mrs. Beck, assistant leader, explained the annual Scout Cookie Sale, and Mrs. Rose Jones, leader, told the girls of the convalescence of Mrs. Claire Schwintek, assistant leader.

The plan into action and urged all parents to attend the community meeting.

Answering promptly—giving others a full minute to answer her call—are first on Janie's list of aids to service.

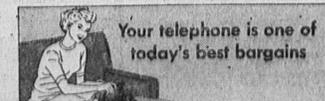

How Janie helps herself to better service

1. "Allowing a little time between calls," says Janie, "gives others a chance to call me . . . and it's a nice party-line courtesy, too." So when she's getting the gang together for a picnic, or for any reason needs to make calls in a row, she waits several minutes between each one. "It's simple to make friends with others on our line. I just use the telephone the way I like them to."

2. Looking up numbers, Janie knows, is really important. "So easy to get them mixed up," she explains. "Why, I was just sure Babs' number was 8145 . . . but when I called her I got the drug store. Turned out her number was 8415. So unless I'm really sure of a number, I'm going to look it up in the telephone book." That's a good tip for all of us—teen-agers and grown-ups.
